PRESS RELEASE

Completion of the final meeting in Cyprus within the framework of the European Erasmus+ KA2 Programme

Within the framework of the European Erasmus+ Programme entitled «STEAME for Saving Life: Guidelines for Developing and Implementing Disaster Risk Reduction Education in Elementary School Curriculum» (Project Code: 2023-2-CY01-KA210-SCH-000169945), implemented from 1 September 2024 to 31 August 2026 with the participation of organizations from Greece and Cyprus, the final working meeting in Cyprus, lasting three days, was successfully held.

The delegation included the Director of Primary Education of Kozani, Mr Papaevangelou Athanasios, the Quality Supervisor of Primary Education of Kozani, Mr Maletskos Athanasios, as well as the Head of the Erasmus+ Programmes of the Directorate of Primary Education of Kozani, Mrs Amoiridou Maria.

The purpose of this concluding meeting was the overall review and evaluation of the programme's actions. During the proceedings, the participants had the opportunity to thoroughly analyze:

- The initial planning: What had been planned to be implemented within the framework of the programme's objectives for education on reducing the risk of disasters in primary schools.
- The work carried out: The actions, educational mobilities and good practices that were successfully implemented throughout the duration of the project.
- The next steps: The remaining actions and procedures pending for the final and successful completion of the programme.

At the same time, as part of the planning for the dissemination of the project's results, the upcoming information conference days, to be held in Cyprus and Greece on 6 and 18 June 2026 respectively. During this conference day, the teachers who implemented related actions and programmes in their schools will have the opportunity to present their work, highlighting the best practices for managing and reducing the risk of disasters in primary education.

The meeting in Cyprus concluded a fruitful period of international collaboration and exchange of innovative pedagogical approaches, strengthening the European dimension of education.
